GROVER'S INGRATITUDE.
HOW HE THROWS ASIDE THE
"CUCKOOS."

"Paramount Blount" Who Palled
Down the American Flag Is Turned Down Himself—His Son
Fails to Get a Consular Appointment.
(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—(Special Dispatch.) The confirmation yesterday of William Churchill of New York
to be Consul-General at Apia, Samoa,
brought to light an instance of Cleveland's ingratitude which is causing today much comment. It is only a sample of how Cleveland, after he has got all he can out of the "cuckoos," who have blindly followed his instructions,
throws them aside and forgets their existence.
Everyone remembers "Paramount Blount" and his visit to Hawaii; how he pulled down the American flag in obedience to Cleveland's orders, and how he tried to put Queen Liliuokalani
on the throne. After he failed, Blount came home and retired to his plantation in Georgia, where he has been ever since. He has a son, James H. Blount, Jr., who has desired to enter the consular service, and has been an applicant for the position of Consul-General at Apia. He had the indorsement of the entire Georgia delegation.
Cleveland, however, did not remember that he owed any gratitude to the elder Blount, and so he ignored the son's application, and gave the appointment to the New Yorker. During the discussion of the confirmation of Churchill in executive session the circumstances related above came out.
Not an Edifying Spectacle.
LONDON, June 6.—The Morning Post
says editorially that the spectacle presented by the United States just now
is not edifying to the admirers of popular government or reassuring to the holders of American securities.

Morrison's Advice.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
STOCKTON, June 6.—The Democratic Convention of San Joaquin county met today, and selected delegates to the State convention to be held at Sacramento. The convention declared for free silver and indorsed Gov. Budd's administration.
The delegates were for Marion Devries
for Congress but he declined, and the delegation will contain many Cam-pitt men. The delegates selected were:
Mike Brisco, Col. J. J. Nunan,
W. L. Brennan, W. H. Walker,
John G. Seal, John C. Seal,
Frank H. Gould, W. B. Reiney,

UTAH DEMOCRATS.
SALT LAKE (Utah), June 6.—Judge
Powers of the State Committee called the Democratic convention to order today, and named for temporary chairman Col. A. C. Ellis of Salt Lake and M. F. Murray of Salt
Lake as secretary.
Col. Ellis, in his speech, said the party platform should be written in the briefest and simplest sentences. It should declare that there must be no
union of church and state; that the people of Utah were in favor of sound
money of silver and gold, at the ratio of 16 to 1, and that no uncertain or double-meaning language should be used. Once more the Democrats were going back to the old Nestors of the party, the sentiment and efforts of the Morgans of Alabama, the Blands
and Vests of Missouri, the Blackburns of Kentucky, the Boies of Iowa and the Sivernachs of Illinois would yet be his salvation.
The speaker said the people were divided as to whether they would declare for freedom and prosperity and sweep the country, the statements of Chauncey M. Depew, the great American humorist and the money trust.

TOPEKA (Kan.), June 6.—The fact that the Kansas Republican Convention to elect delegates to St. Louis held the same day as the Ohio convention, adopted no resolution on the question, has created much interest.
Kansas has not been included in any of the published estimates of the votes
at St. Louis.
To show how the Kansas delegation
stands on the silver question, the Topeka Capitalist will publish tomorrow
the names of the twenty delegates.
Seventeen of the delegates declare themselves emphatically against
free coinage of silver, and in favor of the preservation of the present monetary standard, while one is in favor of the greatest possible use of silver, but with every dollar as good as every other dollar. The delegates were instructed for McKinley by unanimous vote in the State and district conventions.

MORRISON'S MOUTHPIECE.
CHICAGO, June 6.—Congressman W. A.
Foreman of East St. Louis, the political lieutenant of Col. William R. Morrison, attended the Democratic Convention at the Wellington Hotel today.
He urged the organization to abandon the idea of holding a State convention separate and distinct from Gov. Altgeld's silver meeting at Peoria. The meeting was called for purpose of gathering together the prominent gold leaders of the party in Illinois and deciding on organization.
Foreman declared it to be his firm
conviction that the party was an ill-advised
plan and do the party no better good,
but on the contrary meant political suicide to many party leaders. Foreman intimated that Morrison would accept the Presidential nomination on a silver platform.
NOT AN OUT-AND-OUTER.
DES MOINES (Iowa), June 6.—The
delegates to the National Democratic Convention, together with members of the State Central Committee, met here
today to make preparations to go to the Chicago convention and forward the candidate of ex-Gov. Boies. Boies says
he is not an out-and-out candidate, but will accept the nomination if it is tendered to him.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS.
PORTLAND (Or.), June 6.—The official vote of Curry county received tonight wipes out Vandenberg's plurality
and gives Tongue (Rep.) a plurality of forty-nine votes in the First Congress District. Official returns have been received from all counties in the district
except five, and from these five counties complete returns have been received. Unless the official count in the five counties changes the result, Tongue
is elected.
In the Second District Ellis (Rep.) has 631 plurality, with a few scattering precincts to hear from.
READY FOR THE "UNTERFIED."
CHICAGO, June 6.—Everything is now in readiness at the Coliseum for the National Democratic Convention to be held here in July.
Dimensions of the space to be occupied by the convention are 700 feet in length and 300 feet in width. The total seating capacity is 15,000. The central section, which is reserved for the delegates, will seat 1000. Three large sections designed for the speculators, have entrances so as to prevent crowding from one section to another.
The main platform floors for the officers of the convention, members of the national committee and press will be located in the eastern portion of the central section. Rooms for officers and committeemen have been located in the rear of the platform. Telegraphers will occupy places underneath the platform.
On the sixty-third-street side of the building is the grand reception hall.
The western side of this immense lobby
will be lined with refreshment stands.
THE SILVER CRAZE.
LONDON, June 6.—The Daily News

has an editorial in which it says that it believes that American electioneering
for the silver craze will come to nothing.
WAS NOT A FUNERAL.
ALL BECAUSE THERE WAS NO
CORPSE AT HAND.
The Dutch Government's Attempt to Bring the Body of the Prince of Orange to Delft Proves an Utter Failure.
(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES)
LONDON, June 6.—(Special Dispatch.) The Dutch government has just been impressed by the fact that a corpse is an indispensable adjunct to the funeral. Many years ago the Prince of Orange, of the royal house
of Holland, was a general in the Austrian army, and died and was buried at Padua. Recently the Dutch government resolved that his body ought to be deposited in the royal Orange mausoleum at Delft. Elaborate funeral ceremonies were arranged and details were published in the Dutch press.
Deputations were appointed to attend
the funeral and the minutest points of etiquette were settled in advance,
even to the number of guns the deceased man was entitled to as a salute
when the body was being deposited at Delft. One truly enterprising newspaper published thrilling dispatches
from Padua, describing the removal of the hero's body from the churchyard
to the Dutch warship Van Speick,
which had been sent to Venice to receive and convey it to Amsterdam.
Now it is announced that the whole business had to be abandoned because there was nothing to exume and bury.
The churchyard and church vaults
were thoroughly searched without finding the least trace of the Prince's body or his coffin, and the supposition
is that the body was removed long ago by fanatics, who regarded it as a desecration to inter a heretic within the precincts of the Catholic Church.

THE WALLING CASE.
Chief of Police Dietrich of Cincinnati Examined.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
NEWPORT (Ky.), June 6.—The Commonwealth in the Walling trial today
consumed the day in the examination of Chief of Police Phil Dietrich of Cincinnati, Sheriff Plummer of Campbell county, Mayor J. A. Caldwell of Cincinnati, Herman Witte and Detective Jack McDermott of Cincinnati. The cross-examination of Dietrich, who was on the stand, lasted nearly all the forenoon.
The testimony consisted of many damaging admissions made by Walling
to Col. Dietrich, among which that he (Walling) knew soon after the trial that Jackson intended to bring Pearl Bryan here, and he (Walling) had agreed to perform an abortion on her;
also that Jackson had changed his mind
and said he would kill her with quick poison at some room, and make a burial of her body in a coffin, and he appear that she had committed suicide;
that he changed his plans and said he would kill her and cut her up and scatter the pieces around the city; finally that for three days before Jackson did kill her he (Walling) knew that Jackson was going to cut her head off.
All this testimony is put in jeopardy by the fact that Col. Dietrich, before he obtained it from Walling, told Walling
it would be well for him to tell all about the whole affair.
Sheriff Plummer testified to an admission obtained from Walling very much the same in all essential points
as that detailed by Dietrich.
ENDED THE INTRIGUE.
Mrs. Fagan Bourland Shoots Her Husband's Paramour.
FORT SMITH, (Ark.) June 6.—Last night Mrs. Fagan Bourland shot
twice and fatally wounded Maud
Allen, then first upon her own husband. The shooting was the result of an intrigue of long standing between Bourland and the Allen woman.
Bourland is quite wealthy, and his wife is a leader in local society. She has not been arrested and probably will not be. Mrs. Bourland disguised herself by blacking her face in order
that she might come to the couple unawares. It is thought the Allen woman will die.
Gold Reserve.
WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Treasury today lost $12,000 in gold coin, and $500 in bars, which leaves the true
gold reserve $106,412,768.

She is with us once again by seashore and on mountain side.

CLEARING UP.

The Senate About Ready
to Adjourn.

By Next Monday Night There May Be No Quorum.

House Proceedings Are Rather Less Certain.

The President Vetoes the General Deficiency Bill—He is Down on the French Spoilation Claims.
Committee Work.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Congressional situation tonight indicates
an abeyance to adjourn before Tuesday night, although any determined opposition in the Senate to the action of the House on appropriation bills may postpone adjournment several days.
At the close of the session the Senate today there were but forty-six Senators present, one more than a quorum. By Monday night there will not be a quorum, or at least not a quorum that could be sustained if a few Senators should withhold their votes when the roll is called. In the House, a quorum can be maintained
for several days, but not long, if by any filibustering tactics the Senate
should be determined to defeat one of the appropriation bills.
SENATE AND HOUSE.
WASHINGTON, June 6.—The Senate
made some progress today toward clearing away the great appropriation bills which stand ahead of adjournment. The Indian Bill was finally disposed of, the contract-school item being modified so Catholic schools will be abolished July 1, 1897.
After discussing 15 items of battle-
ships and armor plate most of the day,
the Senate declined, by a vote of 24 to 26, to accept the conference report recommending the purchase of armor plate
at a maximum cost of $45 a ton. The Sundry Civil conference were instructed by unanimous vote to insist on the appropriation for new public buildings at the capitals of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana, and additional
sums for buildings at other points.
The House cleared its desk for adjournment today by disposing of all the essential business before it, which consisted of conference reports on appropriation bills, and a bill to amend the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill proved effectual as the House, by a vote of 140 to 149, refused to pass the bill over the veto sent to the Senate
a substitute omitting the French spoliation and other claims which had incurred the Presidential opposition.
Although there was little debate on the Indian Bill conference report, which involved a compromise extending government aid to church schools for another year which could not be voted,
the compromise was rejected by the narrow vote of 58 to 45. An amendment authorizing that states make liens on arid lands to cover expenses of reclamation was adopted, and a bill passed limiting mail which can be franked to written and printed matter.

FIFTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.
REGULAR SESSION.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE.)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—SENATE.—
Vice-President Stevenson in the Senate
today announced his signature to a number of bills, including the Deficiency Appropriation and the Indian Bill.
Among the favorable reports was one
from the Library Committee for a peace
monument at Appomattox, at the point
where Grant and Lee met.
SENATE.—The Senate today passed a partial agreement on the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill. He explained the number of items still open, including those for new public buildings at Lake City, Camden, N. J. The House conferees
positively refused to assent to any public-building items.
The Senate amendment of $35,000 for participation in the Brussels exposition
next year was also resisted by the House, although the Senate had regarded it as most desirable this government take part.
Senator Allison said these and other items were of such importance to large interests that the Senate conferees did not feel justified in abandoning them
without the advice of the Senate.
Senator Dubois made a vigorous plea
for public buildings at the new capitals.
He said it was notorious that the House of Representatives lived in a town
that would not make a suburb of one of these western capitals. County seats in some of these new States were larger than any town in the district represented by Messrs. Reed and Milliken.
Senator Vest said it was the established policy to give new States public buildings at the capital.
Senator Platt thought the Senate
should take a firm stand in insisting on all proper public improvements. This government was not going into bankruptcy. After all the talk, there was a good deal of money in the treasury,
perhaps improperly raised by bonds, but nevertheless there. Senator Platt said it would be a queer policy for an individual to borrow money, put it in his pocket and refuse to pay a note when due, but this appeared to be in line with the policy of borrowing money and holding on to it until the bonds became due thirty years hence.
The Senate conferees were instructed to insist on all public-building items.
To emphasize the insistence a yeas and
nays vote was taken, resulting 58 to 45.
Similar action was taken as to the Brussels exposition and other items.
The final conference report on the Indian Appropriation Bill was presented and agreed to. The item to contract Indian schools is modified by limiting this date of continuance until July 1, 1897, instead of July 1, 1896. The item of $32,000 for legal fees in the claims of the "old settlers" and Cherokee Indians. The bill was passed by the House on June 10, 1895, and the President has not yet signed it. It followed the number of battleships at three and $425 per ton as the maximum price of armor.

Senator Hawley of Connecticut declared Senator Chandler's remarks, saying too much importance would be attached to them, owing to his former service as Secretary of the Navy. He said $500 was a fair price for armor.

Senator Pettigrew of South Dakota attacked the report in the House that he had declared it was an outrageous concession to the combination between the Carnegie and Bethlehem works.

Senator Bacon of Georgia said that while he had favored four battleships, yet he would decline to support three if the armor was paid for at the excessive rate of $425.

Senator Gorman said that while he did not join in the report, he was satisfied the Navy department had been so far from the truth as to be a liability to the country.

In reply to Senator Bunker's suggestion that the armor furnished by the Bethlehem works to Russia at $359 was not as good as that furnished the United States at $425, Mr. Gorman said: "It is interesting to know we are furnishing our enemies with armor plates we can penetrate with our own guns."

Senator Smith of New Jersey, said the government was facing a combination making great profits in the fashioning of armor plates, and that the possibility of bicycle manufacturers and the possibility of bicycle manufacturers and the possibility of bicycle manufacturers.

When the debate closed, the conference report was disagreed to, by 24 yeas and 120 nays. The bill was then referred to the committee on the Judiciary.

its citizens to pay the claims thus relinquished. "I do not understand it to be asserted that there exists any legal liability against the government on account of its relations to these claims. At the term of the Supreme Court just finished the Chief Justice, in an opinion concurring with the majority of the court, in appropriating for their payment, said: 'We think that the payments made by the government were made in good faith and for the purpose of settling the claims of the claimants.'"

"Until 1846 these claims were from time to time pressed upon the attention of Congress with varying fortunes, but never with favorable action. In that year, however, a bill was passed for their ascertainment and satisfaction, and $500,000 was appropriated for their payment. This bill was vetoed by President Polk, who declared that he could perceive no legal or equitable grounds upon which this appropriation could rest. This veto was sustained by the House of Representatives.

"Many years afterward, in 1855, a bill was passed similar to the last mentioned and appropriating for these claims a like sum of money. Gen. Quesada Dies of Blood-Poisoning—Gen. Boreas to be Removed—Another Letter from Owen Melton—Lawrence's Talk.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE. NEW YORK, June 6.—A special from Havana says the Diario de Marina published what purports to be a statement given to the press of Madrid by the ministry confirming the report that Secretary Olney has urged Spain to send reinforcements to Cuba and end the war, with the intimation that if Spain should abandon the island, the United States would undertake its pacification so that foreign adventurers might not attempt to establish an independent government.

THE THREE FRIENDS EXPEDITION. PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The Cubans of this city are considerably excited over the news confirming the landing of the latest expedition carried by the steamer "Three Friends." The information came directly from Dr. Portuondo, sub-secretary of the republican government, who is now with President Betancourt at Cabañas Mountain.

A second letter tells of the preparations made for several weeks by the Spanish commander in Puerto Principe, Gen. Melia, with the idea of attacking and capturing the naturally fortified rebel capital, Gen. Melia sent Brigadier General de la Cruz and his cavalry to the outpost at the foot of Cabañas Mountain, seven miles from the headquarters of the government. The total force was about 1,000 men, a few light cannon were advantageously placed among the high rocks far up the mountain side.

For two hours the first encircling ridge of mountains protected the troops, but when Carlos's force reached the second plain, a severe battle was fought. The rebels were driven back and the Spanish force was victorious. A few light cannon were advantageously placed among the high rocks far up the mountain side.

BERLIN NOTES. Work Before the Reichstag—Emperor's Visit to the Front—The Reichstag is now in session. The Emperor is expected to visit the front. The Reichstag is now in session. The Emperor is expected to visit the front.

BERLIN, June 6.—(By Atlantic Cable. Associated Press Copyright, 1895.) There was a very poor attendance in the Reichstag today, owing to the heat, less than thirty members being present at its opening, and there is little prospect, in spite of the Emperor's expressed wish, that the civil code will be adopted before the Reichstag adjourns.

During the remainder of the session the Reichstag is expected to pass a law relating to the Reichstag, and a law relating to the Reichstag. The Reichstag is now in session. The Emperor is expected to visit the front.

FOR SALE—
Do you see them?
It was a slat;
They were loaded so high
that the electric wires
had to be cut
in order to pass down the street.
What was there then?

Seven immense wagons,
loaded with goods
bought at Joseph's
and shipped to the seashore,
and they were all bargains.
But there are others;
come and get them;
contents of two 6-room houses
coming in tomorrow.
Elegant oak bedroom suits;
polished oak rocking chairs,

fine solid leather couch;
almost new Quick Meal gasoline stove,
fancy oak secretary.
brussels and Ingrain carpets;
tables, mattings, shades, etc.
But every day we have Good hardware bedroom suites at $12;
cheval bedroom suites, large mirror, $14;
cable woven wire springs, $1.50;
full-size cotton top mattresses, $2.50;
a solid oak dining chair, 85c;
a fancy back rocking chair, $1.35.

the hardwood 6-ft. extension tables, $4.50;
some good second-hand cook stoves, $8;
pretty good bed lounges, $5;
full assortment of matings, 10c up;
everything in the household line;
if we haven't got it we can get it;
you are bound to be a winner
if you buy

ARRESTED HIS WIFE

THE MISFORTUNE OF A POLICE OFFICER.

Mrs. Scott Reynolds Leaves Her Husband—Doubled on Her Track—Hid Away in Santa Ana—Accused of Grand Larceny.

It is not often that a police officer has the unpleasant duty to perform of asserting his own wife, but such was the lot of Officer Scott Reynolds of the city. For two days the unhappy man searched vainly for his spouse, and last night brought her back from Santa Ana, a prisoner, charged with grand larceny.

Mrs. Nellie Reynolds came to Los Angeles from Denver about three years ago. She was a handsome man of 25 or 26 years, with dark complexion, big black eyes and of fine physique. She secured employment as a waitress in a restaurant. Later she went to work in another restaurant

Second street and there Officer So Reynolds met and loved her. After short courtship, they became engaged. It is said the woman was engaged at that time to another man, but she had previously been married to but was divorced. It was also said that she had a son 6 years of age who is cared for by its grandmother in Kansas City.

Reynolds and the woman were married in November, 1894, and went to housekeeping in a cottage in the W. Skill track, but things did not seem to go right, and a few days ago she came home, ostensibly on a visit to relatives.

Reynolds was not long in making up his mind. He was taking with him a number of valuable papers and some money. The matter was laid before C. G. Smith, and he sent a telegram to Francisco, thinking that the worst might have taken the steamer for the city. It appears that Mrs. Reynolds did not go north by steamer, but by rail, and when she got to San Francisco she doubled back to Los Angeles, from this city went to Santa Barbara, where she stopped and took lodgings. Reynolds got leave of absence and went to Santa Barbara in search of her. There he learned that his

was in Santa Ana and he returned to this city, where he swore out a complaint charging her with grand larceny. In the mean time Mrs. Reynolds was living in Santa Ana under the name Mrs. Sarah Rouse.

Monday, Deputy Sheriff Uhl received a telephone message instructing him to arrest the woman, a warrant was held for her by the Angeles police. She was taken into custody, and at once admitted that she was Mrs. Nellie Reynolds, wife of officer Scott Reynolds of Los Angeles and said she had left her husband because he did not treat her well. She said she had intended to go East.

Reynolds arrived a few hours after her arrest, and stepped into her room suddenly in the Sheriff's office. His appearance surprised her, but she quickly recovered herself, and after a few minutes' conversation, the happy couple left for home.

From other sources the story was learned that Mrs. Reynolds left her room to meet a man who is connected with the tent show, or, as she called it, a theatrical company, billed to arrive in Santa Ana yesterday. The name of the man was not known, but it is said that he was with a cheap tent show which rec-

Reynolds has been on the police force about three years, and is considered a good officer. No stock is taken in him by his wife that he treats her so cruelly. An effort was made to find Reynolds last night, but he has moved since June 2, and none of his brother officers knew where he was.

IN SANTA ANA.

SANTA ANA, June 6.—(Special patch.) Santa Ana was treated to a little of the sensational today when a pretty woman giving the name of James Rouse was arrested in a livery-house here on the charge of

Mrs. Rouse does not turn out herself at all. She quietly gave information that she was none other than the wife of Officer Reynold Los Angeles; that she concluded leave her husband because he did not love her well and that she had started but changed her mind and headed to San Francisco. The suddenly learned Mr. Reynold's intention, for she was intercepted here the officers today and this afternoon. Reynold arrived. His com-rather a surprise to Mrs. Regan and when he stepped into the office the woman quickly, "Where's your warrant."

"I've got it," answered the husband and the unhappy pair stepped into court's private chambers to talk matter over.

STORY OF HIS LIFE.

[If You Are Weak in Vitality or Have Varicocele This Letter From Mr. L. L. Jaccard, a Prominent Jeweler of San Leandro, Cal., Will Interest You.

When you are seeking a cure for some ailment that is sapping your very life away you naturally look for a remedy which is highly recommended by persons who have tried it. If you see the testimony of some indefinite, unknown person you are skeptical as to its honesty because you don't know the person and you can't test the chances on somebody you never heard of. But when a man whose friends are the leading men of the State, a merchant who is known and respected by all men in business, who is known by everybody within a radius of twenty miles of where he lives; when you see the testimony of such a man you cannot dispute or deny its truth. Such a man is Mr. L. L. Jaccard. For all manner of weakness Dr. Sanden's Electric Belt is the most certain cure. For Varicocele—the insidious disease which saps the strength from men—it is an absolute and the only cure. The book "Three Classes of Men" should be read by every man who is weak. It is free. Call and test this wonderful Belt. A regular practicing physician of thirty years' experience can be consulted here free of charge. When medicines cannot be used they will be given free with the Belt. Address or call was burned in the road before it could be moved to a safe distance from the flaming oil.

As the fire spread southward, it caught the house of Louis Spinnier, who went to the fire with a hose, together with Mr. Spinnier's oil derricks and a tank containing 150 barrels of kerosene. The big plant of Huber & Morrill, which had a large number of the cables, drilling tools and appliances that lay ready for use. The derricks and derricking tools, including 600 barrels of oil just ready for shipping, added the costly fuel to steam already rolling down the shore. Doherty's big slump hole, which holds 10,000 barrels of refuse oil.

Leaping onward, the blaze wrought havoc in the lot belonging to Hibbard, Sterling & Libby, where derricks were destroyed, and two tanks containing about two hundred barrels of oil. The slump hole of this lot, the largest in the field, measuring thirty-seven and a half feet, and holding 1000 barrels of oil, was the drilling tool of George Gaisly.

Two other derricks, which were burned with the rest. Adjacent to this place was the property of H. A. Gaisly, who had a large tank, worth about $100 worth of damage to the business.

Across the street two dwellings are a part to the flames. The two-story house of Mr. J. J. Gaisly, who was occupied by a family named Gresham, was the first to go, a dead loss of $2,000 and a white horse, and the property of Rene's oil plant, valued at $300.

Other sufferers was Miles Bowler, the plant where the employ of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, who lost his house and furniture, valued in all at about $500. The Tubbs well also shared in the general ruin, but Mr. Tubbs's house escaped.

Spinnier lost one tank, and D. A. Conner lost about $75 worth of tools and appliances, through a severe scorching.

Not a dollar's worth of property insured, and the loss, so far as the loss to the business, was $100,000 destroyed in being "rased" houses that were saved from the flames.

The man was a German, who refused to give his name, had quarreled with his mother-in-law, and in order to terrify her, had threatened to throw himself over his head. He fired a revolver over his head, but took cover and did not shoot again. The unfortunate feature about the affair was the terrible shock it did to the fellow's mother and sister. The women were badly frightened.

FOUGHT WITH HYENAS.

EXCITING EXPERIENCE OF A KEEPER OF WILD ANIMALS.

Harlo Northrop Attacked by Savage
Brutes in a Cage During the Parade of a Circus—He Beats
Them into Submission.

(BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TIMES)
BRIDGEPORT (Ct.) June 6.—(Special Dispatch.) The throng attracted by the parade of Barnum & Bailey's show this morning witnessed a thrilling scene. Harlo Northrop, keeper-in-charge of a cage of hyenas, beat into submission four of the savage brutes which refused to obey, and finally attacked him. When the parade left the circus grounds, Northrop noticed that his charges were restless and ugly, and occasionally snapped at each other. He kept them on a leash. All went well until the corner of Main and Wall streets was reached. There a dense crowd had congregated.

At this point the largest of the four hyenas made a jump at Northrop. The keeper was on the alert for just such a move, and stepped aside, at the same time dealing the animal a heavy blow on the head with the loaded whip he carried. He followed this with other blows, and drove the brute to a corner. While this was going on, another hyena made an attempt to pass back of Northrop. He prevented this, and after a struggle, drove the animal back into a corner with others. Northrop is a native of Bridgeport, and had many acquaintances and friends in the crowd along the streets. After the first attack, the crowd had followed the cage, in which the hyenas were, and the sidewalk and street were filled. "Get out of the cage!" "Give them the whip!" and all sorts of advice was given to Northrop by his friends.

The young man stood firm, however, and backed into a corner of the cage. At Wall street the four animals made a concerted move and dashed around the cage. Northrop was knocked down in the rush. Before he went down, however, he dealt one of the brutes a blow on the head and it measured its length on the floor of the cage.

Northrop quickly regained his feet and a fierce fight followed. He jumped in among the struggling brutes, who were fighting among themselves, and at last succeeded in driving them into a corner, where they lay exhausted. All were panted with blood. Northrop's clothing was torn and bloody. During the fight in the cage, there was great excitement among the crowd, and when Northrop had subdued the brutes and was again master of the situation he was loudly cheered by the spectators. The hyenas were completely cowed and during the remainder of the parade were docile.

POWDER TRUST.
Many Millions of Dollars Back of the New Powder Trust.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Herald this morning published a sensational article, a powder trust, a powerful combination backed by millions of dollars, and a virtual monopoly of the powder business. The article, which is a sensational story, is a complete fabrication. The powder companies are the Laidlaw & Rand Powder Company, the Hazard Powder Company and the Dupont de Nemours Company. All of this city.

As a result of the combination the price of rifle powder, or what is called sporting powder, has advanced from $3.35 for a keg weighing twenty-five pounds, to $4, while blasting powder has been advanced from $3 to $3.25 a keg. The new order went into effect on June 1. Although the officials of the companies say there was no agreement between them, the fact that prices are advanced on the same day to the same figures might help to indicate otherwise.

The Phoenix Powder Company, in the Havemeyer building, is one of the first of the twenty smaller companies to surrender to the big concerns. The Phoenix was named as next to the three largest companies that have advanced prices. Its stock is almost entirely owned by the Laidlaw & Rand Company and its present officers are to be replaced by others named by that company.

The treasurer of the Hazard Company said: "This company, which is one of the largest, has been doing a business of many millions a year, but has been running at a loss for some time and decided to raise prices."

J. A. Haskell, president of the Laidlaw & Rand Company, said in effect the same thing that now the company proposed to manufacture powder at a profit. "We have several million dollars in the bank," he said, "and we are forced to raise the price."

SHOTS WERE FIRED.

Attempted Jailbreak at Vernal, Utah Frustrated by Guards.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS WIRE)

SALT LAKE (Utah) June 6.—A special to the Tribune from Pries, Utah, says: "A report has been received here stating that a jail delivery was attempted at Vernal, Utah, at about 11 o'clock last night. About thirty men, friends of Mat Warner and Coleman, whom a coroner's jury recently found guilty of murder in the first degree, attempted to release them from jail. A number of shots were fired from both sides, and one of the mob is reported seriously injured. The jail guards stood firm at their posts, and finally succeeded in dispersing the members of the mob."

FAT MADE THIN AND WELL

By Taking Dr. Edison's Obesity Pills and Fruit Salt, or His Obesity Reducing Compound, and Wearing His Obesity Bands.

MRS. JULIETTE CORSON PAIOLA writes: "Dr. Edison's Obesity Pills and Fruit Salt gave me a reduction of 30 pounds in six weeks and made my neck and bust again shapely."

Roy Jordan, the popular vocalist, writes: "Dr. Edison's Obesity Band reduced my abdominal measurement eleven inches in five weeks."

Dr. Edison's Obesity treatment by pills and salt is a harmless mineral treatment. His treatment by his Obesity Reducing Compound is a liquid vegetable treatment. Take your choice or use both together.

Dr. Edison's treatment for obesity is curative in many ways, but it is not a "cure-all." Its paramount mission is to make fat folks thin. It will reduce a double neck, bust, chin or face, or abdomen, shoulders or hips, without reduction where there is no surplus fat. The skin contracts to its normal tension and covers the parts without wrinkles.

—Mrs. Lucy Stone Menard, in "Woman's World."

Dr. Edison's Obesity Pills, $1.50 a bottle, three bottles for $4 (enough for one treatment); Obesity Fruit Salt, $1 a bottle; Dr. Edison's Obesity Reducing Compound, $1 a bottle (enough for one treatment); Dr. Edison's Common Obesity Band is $1.50 up to 30 inches and 10 cents extra for each additional inch. Measure as per figures 1, 2, 3. The band may be worn with benefit with either the mineral or vegetable treatment. We carry a large stock of Dr. Edison's Obesity and Supporting Bands in all sizes. Please call and examine these goods.

Orders O. D. must be accompanied by $1 deposit to guarantee express charges. Send for "How to Cure Obesity." Visit our store. May you save this in "The Times."

WHERE IS HORNBY?

Organizer of an Electrical Class

About three months ago, T. P. Hornby appeared in Los Angeles, claiming to be a student of the National Electrical School of Chicago, began organizing an electrical class in this city. He met with success, and soon had a class of sixty, nearly all of the pupils being business men, who before going into it asked if the course would be practical, and, not theoretical. Hornby assured them that it would, and also said that the lessons would be illustrated by apparatus, which he would furnish. The course was to cost each member of the class only $20, and nearly all deposited notes in the bank, which have since been paid, about $1500 in all.

Chief Engineer Nisley of the Los Angeles Railway Company, was engaged as a teacher of the class. Among the members was E. M. Wade of the firm of Wade & Wade, analytical chemists and assayers. The only apparatus which was received was a little box of gew-gaws. Mr. Nisley has been lecturing to the class, which has been meeting in the Curtis Block, and he has not been paid for his work. We have had a good deal of spicy correspondence with the National Electrical School in Chicago, but are unable to get them to send us any apparatus to carry out the promises of the school. We understand that he is working the same scheme in other places.

UNFORTUNATE CHINAMAN.

Dying from Ten Gashes in His Head.

Ah Yiek, a Chinaman, was found at the Chinese Hospital by Officer Richards about 9 o'clock yesterday afternoon, with a lacerated throat and ten terrible gashes in his head. Yiek is about 60 years old and had been in the Chinese Hospital for several weeks.

According to the story of the Chinaman about the hospital, he first attempted to cut his throat with a broken bowl, and then cut himself on the head with a cleaver. He was taken to the Receiving Hospital and at an early hour this morning was still living, but the chances of recovery are slight.

From the character of his wounds, there seems to be grave reason to doubt the suicide story. It seems hardly credible that in his enfeebled condition he could have made such desperate and repeated efforts at self-destruction. His head is terribly cut and shows ten distinct wounds. The police had not been notified and the circumstances justify grave suspicions of foul play. As yet no incriminating evidence has been discovered.

Music at the Park.

The first grand summer concert by the Seventh Regiment Band will take place at Westlake Park at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. The band will number twenty-five players, composed of some of the best musicians in Southern California. It will continue to give concerts every Sunday, under the direction of George Cann. The following programme will be presented this afternoon:

"Dragons' Call" (Blenheim).
Waltz, "Dream on the Ocean" (Guns).
Overture, "Guy Mannering" (H. Bishop).
Selection, "Ermine" (Jakobowicz).
Cavalry charge, (Luders).
Symphony: Morning of battle; infantry approaching with drums; cavalry in the distance, coming nearer and nearer until it charges upon the enemy; cavalry, infantry and artillery in the middle of battle; defeat of the enemy, pursued in the distance by the cavalry, intermission.
Overture to William Tell, (Rossini).
"The Swedish Wedding March" (Soderman).
Medley, "Ethiopian Carnival" (Laudenau).
Masurka, "La Casarino" (Ganna).
March, "Santa Cruz" (new) (A. Roncovieri).

SANITARY GRATE.

A Most Wonderful Piece of Simple Mechanism.

An Invention Highly Appreciated in This Modern Age—Settles the Question of Ventilation and Economical Heating.

George Phillips of Victoria, B. C., is in the city, introducing the Phillips sanitary grate. He has installed his grate in the new residence of A. B. Benton, of Alvin & Benton, architects, opposite Mrs. Sullivan's, on Kensington road, Aguirre Heights, and gave an informal reception to quite a number of builders and architects to inspect this wonderful piece of simple mechanism. They were very much surprised to see just a little grate fire throw out great currents of hot air in the rooms above. The great utility lies in the fact that one grate will thoroughly warm a six to eight-room house with pure fresh air.

Moreover, by the use of the new grate, no less than half the fuel consumed by the common grate can be saved. The apparatus consists of a coil of steel pipes set in a square steel shaft, placed in the flue of the chimney, through which the heat from the grate passes. The register on the floor up-stairs, or set in the wall, allows the heat to pass out into each room.

Fresh air is supplied to the heater by means of a shaft leading from the outside, while the hot air in the rooms is consumed by the fire place. There is a complete circuit of warm, fresh air in each room, solving beyond all doubt the grave question of ventilation. This apparatus is regulated by damper, and a certain temperature can be obtained by their manipulation. The great interest that was manifested at the test yesterday afternoon showed plainly the feasibility of this modern invention, and many expressed themselves that the day is not far distant when the stove and stove pipes will be cast aside for the Phillips sanitary grate, which is far superior.

Mr. Phillips has made a heating study, and is authority on this subject. The heater is fully guaranteed and can be used in any grade at a very nominal expense; in fact, much less than the direct cost of furnace caps, or of doing the same work, with the saving of half the fuel.

Boyle & Thompson have bought one-half interest in the Phillips sanitary grate, and have purchased the old-established firm of J. P. Holbrook, No. 210 and 214 Requesa street, sheet-iron manufacturers, and will combine the summer with the manufacture of the Phillips heater. Mr. Phillips, the manufacturer of the grate, is in the city, and is in the possession of the invention. Mr. Phillips, who will cheerfully give information as to the grate.

"THE MARVEL OF HEALTH."

A Light in Physics and Metaphysics.

Testimony of a Los Angeles Man Who Verifies the "New Way" of Curing Disease Without Drugs.

Poor humanity is afflicted with a vast number of so-called cures for disease, many of which are worse than the disease itself, while others are worthless. All other curative measures sink into insignificance as we comprehend the importance and simplicity of that universal remedy for disease which infinite wisdom placed before primitive man to enable him to prolong his existence. For ages all of those tribes who live closer to nature than civilized man have employed a general cure for disease, which was ever with them, upon the mountain, in the valley, or upon the desert. Through the telegraphic system of their own nerves they manipulated the life forces of the body, and enjoyed the bliss of perpetual health. Unfortunately for them, however, they disregarded that equally simple law, hereinafter explained, for controlling the mental and moral qualities, and the tempter came. Despoiled, slaughtered the oppressed, vile poisons were placed at the lips of helpless victims, and both of these atrocities were perpetuated by so-called civilization, instead of that natural cure which He, who always provides, had made a specific for all wrongs under a general law of equilibrium. Being unalterable, its continual violation ushered in the dark ages, and a social blight which can never be removed until the former law of compensation is fully realized.

This great law could not, however, be permanently buried in oblivion. It is about ten years since upon a Chicago dissecting table the focal terminal of the sympathetic nerves was discovered by Prof. Pratt, who then voiced the echoes of the ages, when his thunder notes shook the medical world as he proclaimed that open law of nature, which sealed the doom of drugs: "In any serious physical difficulty look one inch inside of the lower bowel, and you will find its cause."

"The irritation of an organ begins at its mouth," said Prof. Pratt, "so-called disease is reflex or effect of local irritation," which can be seen.

Following these important discoveries there was developed a school of official surgery, which has performed many startling cures and solved many problems in physics and metaphysics. One of the most important things to be remarked by those who seek to relieve the physical or mental suffering of mankind is that this is not a world of chance. Nature acts according to fixed and immutable laws, which mankind must seek out and understand before there can be any hope of permanent physical and mental health. These laws are not mysterious and vague, but simple and clear, with the evidence "in sight," so that all who will may understand. Unfortunately, however, there are many who are willing to believe in the efficacy of resorting to the use of drugs and other noxious compounds, in place of the simple means of cure that nature has provided.

Many citizens of Los Angeles can verify the truth of the following words of Prof. Pratt, at the closing of a report on the subject of official surgery: "I have witnessed most marvelous transformations in other human characteristics and tendencies. I have seen the insane made rational; I have seen the irritable made amiable; the discouraged made hopeful; the fearful made cheerful; and the lustful made virtuous."

"As a bird let loose spreads its pinions and soars skyward, so does a caged soul when freed from the unhealthy suggestions and associations of morbid physical conditions demonstrate its aspiring tendencies."

"A knowledge of these things only makes one charitable for the weakness and eccentricities of the human kind, and so breeds a hope that punishments may give place to cures, and that before man sits in judgment upon his fellow-man, a physical examination may be instituted to determine whether the offending member of society on trial may not be an invalid instead of a criminal."

"With freedom from temptation to wayward practices, may not the chastisement of time be lighter, the equilibrium of bodily functions and activities, merit the most careful and thorough consideration by the medical profession?"

It may seem strange that after this peroration, based upon actual experience, their almost universal response should be: "I have a family to support and cannot afford to educate the people who are neglected in the presentation of this truth."

Many persons who cheerfully accept the new and grand philosophy overlook the simple truth of its first declaration, which demonstrates the wisdom of Providence in placing the cause of all disease in simple binding of these focal terminals "in sight," so that the untutored native can comprehend it, while in higher life a mistaken diagnosis would thus be rendered impossible, and surgery only necessary after long neglect.

The discovery of these nerve terminals which control the physical and mental organism only illustrate why all natural tribes resort to dilation as a cure for pain, and many mothers use a piece of soap for constipation, which is the recognized leader of all disease. It also shows why fierce battles were fought between the advocates of retraction at birth, and circumcision, which was postponed till the eighth day, as it was long known that one or the other was a requirement of mental balance, perfect vision and correct articulation.

The short-lived sufferers from professional experiment in California and elsewhere may take some valuable lessons from the Mexicans, one of whose representatives rode in our Fiesta parade at 115 years of age.

THE MONSTROUS RETIRING FROM BUSINESS

SALE

Successfully started on Friday and Saturday because we did just as we advertised to do—gave values such as were never before known in shoedom. Hundreds of women were not waited upon. Perhaps you were among them. If so we apologize, with the excuse that although the force of salesmen had been materially increased it was impossible to wait upon all. Tomorrow we will see to it that you are attended to.

The values offered are just as great as they were for Friday and Saturday. Some of the prices have been made over, smaller than as first advertised. Read through the list. Cut out what you think will suit, and bring it along to compare with the goods themselves.

A WELCOME HOME.

Preparations for Receiving Senator Stephen M. White.

In response to a call for a meeting to plan a welcome home for Senator White, a goodly number of the foremost men of Los Angeles, irrespective of party, gathered at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. They went to work with a will and in a little while the affair had taken definite shape.

W. D. Woolwine called the meeting to order. W. H. Workman was chosen chairman and L. E. Mosher secretary. Mr. Woolwine suggested that the way to go to work was to appoint a general committee of ten and empower this head committee to appoint sub-committees on music, carriages, transportation, etc. The suggestion was promptly adopted. Then the chair asked for assistance in naming the committee. So many good names were suggested, and it seemed such a mistake to leave any of them out, that the meeting kept on increasing the number of men on the committee until at last it numbered twenty, and its members were empowered to choose five more.

Mr. Workman appointed as the committee: Messrs—J. M. Elliott, Charles Forrester, Dan Freeman, W. H. Workman, T. D. Stimson, J. H. Braly, W. D. Woolwine, Frank S. Hicks, W. D. Gould, Charles Weir, Stephen Bowers, George Gephart, H. T. Hazard, Felfair Creighton, William Garland, M. H. Newmark, C. D. Howry, W. C. Patterson, Paul H. Blades, Chairman.

The chairman arose and made the suggestion that it would be right and graceful to extend an invitation to the reception in honor of Senator White to his noble colleague, Senator Perkins. Mr. Patterson leaped to his feet to give a second to the motion, adding his testimony as an eye-witness to the valuable manner in which Senator Perkins had seconded every effort of Senator White for a free harbor, and the motion went through with a rush.

Upon the adjournment of the general meeting, the committee held a conference, consisting of C. D. Howry, George Gephart, W. M. Garland, H. T. Hazard, F. S. Hicks and Charles Weir.

The Committee on Transportation comprises T. D. Stimson, Dan Freeman and W. C. Patterson. The committee appointed to notify Senators White and Perkins of the reception includes: W. C. Patterson, W. D. Woolwine and the secretary. Upon motion L. E. Mosher was elected secretary and treasurer of the committee.

ARMSTRONG MURDER CASE.

DUFF'S OWN STORY OF THE ALLEGED MURDER AND HIS FIGHT WITH METZKER.

Lincoln Proves Duff's Innocence by an Almanac and a Touching Appeal to the Jury—An Elloquent Plea at Beardstown, in 1857, for the Son of an Old Friend and Benefactor.

(From a Special Contributor to The Times.)

The most sensational criminal case in which Abraham Lincoln was ever engaged was that in which he defended Duff Armstrong, the son of the friends of his early years in Illinois, against the charge of murder. For years this case has figured with more or less detail in all biographies of Lincoln, and it has been made the most prominent episode in at least one novel of western life, Edward Eggleston's "The Graysens."

Although the hero of the case, Duff Armstrong, is still living, no one has ever been able until now to get a statement from him for publication. J. McCann Davis of Springfield, Ill., has, however, recently persuaded Armstrong to tell what he remembers of the broil in which he was supposed to have murdered a companion, and also of the trial in which Lincoln secured his release. Armstrong is now in his sixty-third year, and has long been a respected citizen of the little village of Beardstown, in which he spends most of his time. He has been, for several years a member of the Christian church. His trial was the murder of "Pres" Metzker, a subject he seldom talks about; he would faintly forget it, and those about him have not often been inquisitive.

DUFF'S ACCOUNT OF HIS FIGHT WITH "PRES" METZKER.

The accounts hitherto printed re pronounce glaringly inaccurate. This is his own story of the alleged murder, and of the trial:

"It was on a Saturday night, and camp meeting was over for the day. In the edge of the grove were three bars where liquor was sold. Here gathered all the men and boys who were drinking much, but I was then becoming sober. It was probably 10 o'clock when I found a big goods box not far from the bars, and I stretched myself out for a night's sleep. Up to this time 'Pres' Metzker and I were good friends; but 'Pres' had been drinking and was in an ugly mood. He came along, making a great deal of noise, and said to me: 'You set up then he grabbed my legs and pulled me off. In a few minutes he jerked me off again, I said, 'Let me alone, I am sleepy.' He went away, but soon came back and pulled me off a third time, and took my glasses and were friends again. But 'Pres' had not gotten through with me. As we stood there, without any warning he hit me a blow on the upper lip. He was going to hit me with a glass, when another man said: 'Set that down; if you strike him with that glass I will kill you.' Then we parted. Metzker stole a quilt from a buggy near by, and, wrapping it around him, walked off to the next morning, when he walked to the bar with the stolen quilt still around him. His right eye was swollen shut. He bathed it with a glass of whiskey; drank another glass, and then mounted his horse and rode away. Several days after that he died. Then the officers came and arrested me and put me in jail."

"I had a preliminary trial at Havana, and was held without bail. All the bad luck in the world seemed to come to me. I was in the prison for several days when he died. Then the officers came and arrested me and put me in jail."

LINCOLN'S DEFENSE.

"After the change of venue to Beardstown, Lincoln told me he would defend me. At the trial I had about twenty-five witnesses. The strongest witness against me was Charles Allen. He was the witness who swore about the moon; he swore it was a full moon, and almost overhead. 'Uncle Abe' asked him over and over about it, but he stuck to it. Then he said he saw me strike Metzker with a slungshot. 'Uncle Abe' asked him to tell how it was done. He got up and went through the motion; struck an overhand blow, just as he declared he saw me do by the light of the moon. 'Uncle Abe' had him do it over again. After Allen's testimony, everybody thought I would be convicted. After 'Uncle Abe' had talked to the jury little while, he said: 'Now, I will show you that this man Allen's testimony is a pack of lies. I saw Armstrong strike Metzker with a slungshot; that he did not witness this fight by the light of the full moon, for the moon was not in the heavens that night.' And then 'Uncle Abe' pulled out the almanac and showed the jury the truth about the moon. I do not remember exactly what it was, whether the moon had not risen, or whether it had set; but whatever it was it upset Allen's story completely. He passed the almanac to the jurors, and they all inspected it. Then 'Uncle Abe' talked about the moon, and showed that he had acted in self-defense and had used no weapon of any kind. But it seemed to me 'Uncle Abe' did his best talking when he told the jury that true friends of my father and mother had been to him in the early days, when he was a poor boy, and he had helped him when he needed help. Lawyer Walker made a good speech for me, too, but 'Uncle Abe' beat anything I ever heard of."

"As 'Uncle Abe' finished his speech, he said: 'I hope this man will be a free man before he comes to the gallows. They left me there with the Sheriff, my brother Jim, and a parcel of boys. The jury was in at New Salem, and it was not over five minutes after they went out when I heard them talking and laughing, and my heart beat a little faster. As soon as the judge and the lawyers got back from supper, the jury was brought in. They had to pass me, and I eyed them closely for some time. They all looked at me, and I knew it was all right, and when the foreman handed me the verdict of 'Not guilty,' I was the happiest man in the world, I reckon."

AFTER THE TRIAL.

"Now, my mother was not in the courtroom when the jury came in, and it is all stuff about her fainting and falling into my arms. She was away somewhere. I don't know where. That night she went home with Jim Dick, the Sheriff. I went home with Dick. Overton and I went down the court-house steps he slipped a $5 bill into my hand. 'Uncle Abe' would not charge me more than $5. I was very happy over my freedom was his sufficient reward."

The almanac used by Lincoln was one which my father, Jake Jones, furnished him. On the morning of the trial I was taken outside the courtroom to talk to Lincoln. Jake Jones was with us. Lincoln said he wanted an almanac for 1857. Jake went right off and got one, and brought it to 'Uncle Abe.' It was an almanac for the proper year, and there was no fraud about it. The truth is, there was no moon that night; if there was, it was hidden by clouds.

But it was light enough for everybody to see the fight. The fight took place in front of one of the bars, and each bar had two or three candles on it. I had no slung-shot; I never carried a weapon of any kind—never in my life. Metzker had a loaded whip, but he did not attempt to use on me. It was only a flat fight, and if I killed 'Pres' Metzker, I killed him with my naked fist. The night after the trial, Lincoln made a speech in Beardstown. The next morning he got the judge and the lawyers and all the big men together, and then called me and my mother, and commenced talking about old times. He told of the first match he ever saw; Jim Long of Fuersburg had it. He told about the Clark's Grove set, and for an hour kept everybody laughing. I remember his telling how 'Put' Green went off somewhere to get a horse for $25. When he got home he felt very rich—so rich he hardly knew what to do with all his wealth—and would go around with a gold ring on his finger. On the boys if they had any money, if they said 'no' (as most of them did) 'I would give them some. Some' seemed very funny to him. Some. 'James H. Norris was indicted with me for the killing of Metzker. He was tried at Havana before my trial was had. Now, he had no more to do with the fight than any of the other bystanders; but he had killed a man some time before, and had gotten clear, and everybody seemed to think this would be a good chance to give him his just deserts. I was in the jury box for the trial for eight years."

"When the war broke out, the four brothers of us enlisted in the army. Jim was wounded. I was in the army, and I served on until near the end of the war, when mother took a nation she was with me. People laughed at her when she said she would write to 'Uncle Abe'; and in a few days mother got a telegram signed 'A. Lincoln.' Telling her I had been honorably discharged. At that time I was at Elmira, N. Y., helping pick up deserters, and a discharge was the last thing I was waiting for."

AN ALLEGED FORGER.

Henry L. Wenzell, Arraigned on Three Charges for Forgery.

Henry L. Wenzell was arraigned before Justice Morrison yesterday on three charges of forgery and his trial was set for June 13. Detective Goodman, who brought Wenzell back from Arizona, says he has eight more charges against him.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Wife's Signature Certified to by a Notary Public.

Burton and Sureties of San Bernardino Made Defendants.

Fire Commissioners Asked to Reconsider Their Action and Allow the Department to Participate in Fourth of July Parade.

The Finance and Supply Committees yesterday prepared the usual reports to the City Council. The dispute in regard to the opening of Trinity street has been revived by a petition to the Council, filed yesterday with the Clerk. An effort is being made to induce the Fire Commission to reconsider its action, by which the members of a committee to allow the Fire Department to participate in the Fourth of July parade was refused.

At the Courthouse yesterday, a complaint for the recovery of money loaned upon a mortgage, including allegations of notarial fraud, was filed. The City Water Company objects to the use of the fire hydrants for street sprinkling purposes and has brought a suit to recover $5000 and an injunction. A damage suit in the sum of $50,000 has been filed, wherein the Associated Press is defendant. Judge Shaw has dismissed Spruance's action to have a city franchise set aside. Solomon charged with assault with a deadly weapon, has been discharged. Rodriguez, the principal in a San Gabriel simple assault and sentenced to pay a fine of $60, or in lieu thereof, pass thirty days in the County Jail. A document making serious charges against Attorney Blakely, has been filed.

AT THE CITY HALL.

COMMITTEE REPORTS.

VARIOUS RECOMMENDATIONS MADE TO THE CITY COUNCIL.

An Effort Being Made to Have the Fire Commission Reconsider Its Action in Reference to the Fourth of July Parade—Public Money Ordered Transferred.

At its regular weekly meeting yesterday the Finance Committee prepared the following recommendation to the City Council: "We recommend that the sum of $2500 be transferred from the new water fund to the street-lighting fund, and that the City Auditor and City Treasurer be so instructed."

"We recommend that the petition from the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church be referred to the City Assessor to report to this committee as to the statements therein contained."

"In the matter of petition from A. Jacoby, asking that a certain lien recorded in volume 2 of City Liens at lot 13 of the Bottler tract be cancelled; it appears that this lien is on account of the widening of Ninth street, and that on the 30th day of March, 1891, the Council paid the petitioner 50 per cent. of the amount of money actually due him on account of the widening of the street. We therefore recommend that the City Clerk be instructed to mark said assessment against lot 13 of the Bottler tract, to be found in volume 2 of City Liens at page 239 cancelled and redeemed of record."

"We recommend that petition No. 505 from W. B. Robb be referred to the City Attorney."

"We recommend that the City Treasurer be instructed to return to W. H. Workman the amount of $600 deposited as a guarantee that he would properly fill the lots and grade the street in front of the school building owned by him to the city on Boyle Heights, Mr. Workman having conformed with all of the requirements for such a guarantee."

SUPPLY COMMITTEE.

The Supply Committee will tomorrow present to the Council the following recommendation: "Your Supply Committee beg leave to report that there are now in the corporation yard a number of wagons formerly used by the street department, and in the basement of the City Hall a number of harnesses used by the street department which are no longer needed by the city, and which are deteriorating every day. Your committee believes that these wagons and harnesses should be disposed of, and therefore recommend that the assistant chief of the fire department be instructed and authorized to dispose of the same at private sale at such prices as he believes the same to be worth."

PETITIONS FILED.

Closing of Trinity Street Objected to by the Property-owners.

The long-standing trouble over the opening or closing of Trinity street has been revived again by property-owners who yesterday filed the following petition to the Council in relation to the matter:

"Whereas, it has come to our knowledge that the contractor who has the contract for curbing and sidewalks on East Twenty-first street in said city, is by the consent of the Street Superintendent and City Engineer of said city about to sidewalk and curb both sides of said East Twenty-first street, thus practically closing said Trinity street as a public thoroughfare, and whereas, said Trinity is a public street, that is and for several years has been used extensively by the undersigned residents and property-owners in the vicinity as well as by other residents, and by the public at large, and whereas, the practical closing of Trinity street by its curbing and sidewalk across the intersection of the same with East Twenty-first street as aforesaid, will result in great hardship to your petitioners and the other residents and property-owners in the vicinity thereof as well as greatly inconveniencing the general public."

"We therefore petition you to take such steps as may be necessary to prevent the practical closing of Trinity street by the sidewalk and curbing of East Twenty-first street, as aforesaid."

A GRATEFUL CHURCH.

The congregation of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church has forwarded to the Council a resolution commending that body for having recently refused to grant a license for a circus performance in this city on Sunday.

HOW ABOUT THE FURNITURE?

Building Superintendent Strange has called the attention of the Council to the fact that although the new Police Station is nearing completion, no provision has as yet been made for courtroom furniture in the building.

Assessment for Maple Avenue.

The improvement of Maple avenue between Washington and Twenty-seventh streets has been completed and accepted. The assessment has been recorded in the Street Superintendent's office and the warrant issued to Thomas S. Wadsworth, of the firm of Folmer & Wadsworth, to collect it. It was assigned by U. G. Baldwin, the contractor. Many property-owners had built sidewalks and curb before these proceedings commenced, consequently these improvements were excepted from the contract, thus making the different classes of assessments much broken up and making this assessment one of the most difficult assessments ever made in the city.

As this assessment was recorded yesterday, June 6, the time of protest against the assessment expires thirty days from that date, but the assessments all become delinquent and draw 10 per cent. interest per annum when the contractor makes his return and he can make that any time inside these thirty days. The work of preparing the assessments has been done by E. B. Postwick, of the Street Superintendent's office.

Asked to Reconsider.

Considerable pressure is being brought to bear upon individual members of the Fire Commission to induce a reconsideration of the decision to keep the fire department apparatus out of the coming Fourth of July parade. Mayor Rader is understood to have promised that if a reconsideration is had, he will vote to allow the department to participate in the parade.

AT THE COURT HOUSE.

PECULIAR SITUATION.

CHARGED WITH FRAUDULENTLY CERTIFYING TO A SIGNATURE.

The State Loan and Trust Company has filed suit against Burton and Notarial Bondsman Weatherholt, both, Thompson and Warren of San Bernardino.

The State Loan and Trust Company to Los Angeles has filed an action against W. L. Burton, Samuel Weatherholt, Albert Thompson and A. A. Warren to recover $5000.55, alleged to be due by the terms of a certain mortgage executed by Lovell L. Rogers and Ada A. Rogers, his wife.

The complaint reviews at length the loss of sums of money to the Rogers family of San Bernardino county, secured by mortgage upon lands afterward found to have been homesteaded by them.

But under the wording of this document, a most peculiar condition was found to exist during the developments of foreclosure proceedings. The signatures of the principals had been duly certified to by W. L. Burton, notary public, while in the trial it was developed upon the complaint that W. L. Burton and acknowledge the execution of the mortgage as shown by the notary.

Judgment is asked against W. L. Burton for $5000, Samuel Weatherholt for $2000, and against Albert Thompson and A. A. Warren for $400 each.

The complaint teems with allegations of fraud upon the part of the notary public in certifying to Mrs. Rogers' signature.

THE FRANCHISE HOLDS.

Spruance Did not Bring the Right Kind of Suit.

Judge Shaw handed down an opinion yesterday in the suit of Spruance against the City Council of Los Angeles, to have a franchise for erecting poles and running wires for the purpose of supplying electricity to inhabitants, set aside on the ground that the plaintiff in this action presented the highest and best bid for the franchise. Spruance bid $500, and the franchise was awarded to F. L. Scott on a bid of $100 and agreement to light the City Hall during the life of the franchise. The court holds that the city should have awarded the franchise to Spruance, as the Council had no authority to award to a lower bidder, although under the terms of such bid, it would appear that the city was to be the more advantageous to the city, but the court further finds that this proceeding does not offer the proper remedy for the correction of such errors. The defendant's demurrer to the petition was sustained and the proceedings were ordered dismissed.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT.

Wants One Hundred Thousand Dollars from the Associated Press.

B. Duncan has sued the Associated Press to recover $100,000 damages. In one complaint filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday he seeks to recover damages from the Associated Press in the sum of $20,000. The document recites a failure upon the part of the defendant to comply with the laws of the State requiring the designation of an agent upon whom process may be served in the office of the Secretary of State at Sacramento, and enlarges upon the broad scope of its telegraph service, and then reproduces the following alleged libellous telegram, published June 18, 1896:

"SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Attorney B. Duncan of Los Angeles has filed an appeal from Judge Ross's decision against him in his $50,000 libel suit against the Southern Pacific and Atchafalpa, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad companies. The case grew out of a dispute about a rebate claimed by Duncan on the companies' charges for shipping household goods. The companies asserted that Duncan had perjured himself in statements made to the Interstate Commerce Commission."

The complaint now recites that the above article was read and understood by J. E. Young, I. E. Messmore and numerous other persons to mean that Duncan had committed perjury besen field, and in her peculiar way, she has been one of the most conspicuous dramatic forces of her time. Her achievements have been so often and so fully defined and discussed in this place that it is unnecessary to repeat the well-known details of her life. My judgment is that this actress has done many things well which ought not to have been done at all, and that her success has been due to her ability to make a convincing docility and display than of the artistic beauty—the treasure of imagination—thought and feeling—which is communicable to the audience. The quality which survives forever, in the conduct of life and in the development of the soul. She belongs to her day, and with the day will pass and be thought of no more."

nerve power and vitality. That is the kind of man that every man should be, and his magnetic presence would make everybody happy around him. Why is it not so? One of the principal reasons is the universally prevailing tobacco habit. Tobacco kills nerve. Stay with tobacco long enough and every man will be a sallow, skinned, nerveless wreck, inspiring disgust instead of love and affection. No man who uses tobacco can be as much of a man as without it.

No grasp so strong as the death grip of the habit, and man once fully in its clutches is helpless without aid. That's why every to-

ANOTHER SOUTHERN PACIFIC ORGAN.

In looking over for a second time the article in the Overland Monthly for June, briefly referred to in these columns last week, it appears more and more surprising that a publication professedly devoted to the interests of the Pacific Coast should have perpetrated such an outrage upon the people of Southern California.

Time was when the Overland was a live and active agency in the progress of the State. Men whose names have become renowned throughout the world contributed to its columns. The Overland was proud of California and Californians were proud of the ambitious young magazine.

All that has changed. The Overland has become a literary nonentity, but it remained for the present imported editor of that publication to go further, and deliberately insult the people of Southern California by such an article as that which appeared in the June number.

The article, which is headed "Santa Monica's Napoleonic proof-reader," is a eulogy on the proof-reader of the government printing office at Washington who, either purposely or through negligence, substituted Santa Monica for San Pedro in the report of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors. This is the way the Overland describes the occurrence:

"Finding a numerous signed petition in favor of San Pedro alone, this astute proof-reader said to himself, 'the omission of Santa Monica is certainly inadvertent. No considerable number of people living in a city which has chosen to build itself twenty miles from the ocean and one hundred and fifty miles from any natural harbor would expect to have two harbors. He therefore inserted the name 'Santa Monica' in addition to the name 'San Pedro.' Whereupon it was charged that the friends of Santa Monica had forged, falsified and interpolated the name 'Santa Monica' with malice prepense."

The writer of this malicious article has not even taken the trouble to get the facts of the case correctly. The proof-reader did not "add" Santa Monica to San Pedro, but substituted Santa Monica for San Pedro.

The Overland goes on to say: "It is a good deal for a people who have chosen to collect themselves together in an urban community seventeen and twenty-two miles from the ocean, and who, when the ocean is reached, find no natural harbor, to ask the United States to create a harbor, and actually manufacture a protected area out of the untamed surf of the sea."

Certainly it is a good deal to ask the United States to create a harbor out of an "untamed surf of the sea," even for the people who have "chosen to collect themselves together." This, however, is just what C. P. Huntington and his agents, paid and otherwise—among whom it would probably be proper to include the editor of the Overland Monthly—are trying to get the United States government to do, in opposition to the wishes of a vast majority of the people of Southern California, who desire to see the harbor established at the natural port of San Pedro, where the government engineers say it should be located. The editor of the Overland, in his supercilious manner, then goes on to lecture the people of this section and to praise the astuteness of the government proof-reader who, either wilfully or negligently, changed the report of the Congressional Committee:

"A people making an almost absurd request of the nation had been phenomenally successful, and just at the point of their ultimate triumph, they refused to be blessed. They raised the absurd cry of 'San Pedro or nothing.' The government was very fortunate in having in its employ a man possessed of large and broad American common-sense. His point of view was much more distant than that occupied by us. He viewed the matter from the breadth of a continent, and having a view as broad as the nation he unhesitatingly concluded that the petition ought to conform to the recommendation of the committee. It was hard for this common-sense, common-place, but pre-eminently astute proof-reader to conceive of as great a variety of ashiness as exists in the character of some people. It was a most difficult thing for him to understand that a large number of people residing in Los Angeles, the city to be benefited by the bounty of the nation, objected to two harbors, when the opportunity of obtaining two was in plain view. With a generosity of purpose which should excite his memory to a commemorative monument, he inserted the name 'Santa Monica' in connection with that of 'San Pedro.' Brave, noble proof-reader. May thy memory be eternally enshrined in our bosoms. May the posterity of the people of Los Angeles prattle thy fame, and shed tears of regret for thy fate in their maturer years. A time will come when thy name will be enshrined, and

THE SENATE IN 1897.

In view of the obstructionist scheme of certain "silver Senators," who declare that they will not allow a tariff bill to pass unless it contains a clause in favor of free coinage, the political complexion of the Senate next year is a matter of especial interest and importance just now. It is not possible, of course, to make an accurate forecast as to the personnel of the Senate nine months hence. The chances, however, appear to be strongly against the silver Senators retaining their ascendancy after the 4th of March next.

The Washington Post has made a careful survey of the situation, and in its issue for June 1 offers the following summary, based thereon:

"Thirty-one Republican Senators now in their seats will remain in office until 1898 or 1899, as follows:—1898—Aldrich, Rhode Island; Burrows, Michigan; Cannon, Utah; Clark, Wyoming; Davis, Minnesota; Hale, Maine; Hawley, New Jersey; Lodge, Massachusetts; Mantle, Montana; Proctor, Vermont; Quay, Pennsylvania; Sherman, Ohio; and Wilson, Washington."

"1899—Baker, Kansas; Carter, Montana; Chandler, New Hampshire; Clifton, Illinois; Elkins, West Virginia; Frye, Maine; Gear, Iowa; Hale, Massachusetts; McMillan, Oregon; McMillan, Michigan; Nelson, Minnesota; Pettibone, South Dakota; Sewell, New Jersey; Shoup, Idaho; Thurston, Nebraska; Warren, Wyoming; Wetmore, Rhode Island; Wisconsin, Connecticut; Lodge, Massachusetts; and Wilson, Washington."

"The terms of thirteen Republican Senators expire on the 4th of next March. These Senators are as follows:—Allison, Iowa; Brown, Utah; Cameron, Pennsylvania; Dubois, Idaho; Gurnea, New Hampshire; Hannabrough, North Dakota; Mitchell, Oregon; Morrill, Vermont; Perkins, California; Platt, Connecticut; Pritchard, North Carolina; Squire, Washington; and Teller, Colorado."

"In every one of these cases the Senators will either succeed themselves, or else their successors will be of the same party affiliation, the case of Mr. Pritchard of North Carolina, alone being an exception. In this case, at least two Democratic Senators already know that they are to be succeeded by Republicans. Mr. Foraker, coming from Ohio in the place of Mr. Brice, and Mr. Wellington from Maryland to succeed Mr. Gibson. In all other cases the Republican gainers will be made. Mr. Hill, in New York; Mr. Kyle, in South Dakota; Mr. Palmer, in Illinois; Mr. Peffer, in Kansas; Mr. Vilas, in Wisconsin; Mr. Voorhees, in Indiana, will probably be succeeded by Senators chosen by Republican legislatures. There is a possibility of a Republican in the place of Mr. Vest, but not taking this into consideration, it will be seen that in the next Senate the Republicans will have thirty-one hold-overs, twelve who will either succeed themselves or be succeeded by Republicans, and that in the place of eight Democratic Senators, eight Republicans, making fifty-two Republicans in all. A Republican will also have certain control of Delaware to fill the present vacancy, making fifty-two. This does not include North Carolina or Missouri."

"There is said to be a possibility that this list of fifty-two will be reduced by two, reports from California and Oregon indicating that the Republicans may carry the former State, and that Mr. Mitchell may be succeeded by a Democrat through a factional fight which the Republicans have in the making. Upon the action of these two States much may depend. As there will be a vacancy from Kentucky due to the death of Mr. Chandler, the next two years, the Senate will number only eighty-nine members, of which thirty-five will be a majority. If the Republicans have a majority of eight and one-half, they will be able to carry the tariff bill minus its free silver accompaniment. If the Democrats have a majority of eight and one-half, they will be able to carry the tariff bill minus its free silver accompaniment. If the Republicans have a majority of eight and one-half, they will be able to carry the tariff bill minus its free silver accompaniment. If the Democrats have a majority of eight and one-half, they will be able to carry the tariff bill minus its free silver accompaniment."

"Much of the opposition to the construction of a breakwater at Santa Monica, which would convert that open roadstead into a protected harbor, is said to arise out of the fact that the Southern Pacific Company has constructed a splendid wharf at that point, and has thereby made Port Los Angeles the terminus and natural outlet of the southern portion of its great system. The intellectual and moral feebleness which would not perceive in this single fact a great opportunity for the accomplishment of a public enterprise is to be pitied if not despised. Every monument ever reared to human enterprise and energy has arisen despite the efforts of ignorance, prejudice and selfishness. We earnestly hope our southern friends will obtain a deep-sea harbor. Until they do, there will be a case of arrested development. Ignorance, prejudice and selfishness, however, will not win for them this prize. A greater breadth of intelligence and its natural concomitant liberality, will be necessary to the accomplishment of that result."

However this may be—whether the article is paid for, in advertising or otherwise, or whether it is due to the malice and stupidity of the editor—it should be sufficient to cause the exclusion of this publication from the homes of all self-respecting citizens of Southern California as long as it remains under the present management.

NEED FOR VICE-PRESIDENT.

In a special dispatch from Augusta, Maine, to the Chicago Tribune, it is positively stated that Speaker Reed will accept the nomination for the Vice-Presidency of the United States if it is tendered him by the coming convention at St. Louis. There has been so much affirming and denying in respect to Mr. Reed and the Vice-Presidency that it is difficult to know what to give credence to and what not. The dispatch to the Tribune is, however, very affirmative, and is based on a letter written by Joseph A. Manley, secretary of the Republican National Committee, and who, also, is directing the political affairs of Mr. Reed. The dispatch says:

"The letter is brief, the only other significant statement in it being a request from Mr. Manley for an hour of Mr. Hanna's time as soon as he arrives in Cleveland. What he desires to talk about, or why he should be satisfied with an hour, is not set forth. But to the minds of Mr. Reed's and Mr. Manley's friends here it is believed to imply but one thing—that the Maine leader will not stand in his own way at St. Louis, and, since the first place is impossible, will content himself with the second. It is understood here from the newspapers and other sources that the McKinley managers are entirely favorable to the nomination of Mr. Reed for the Vice-Presidency."

The St. Louis cyclone can take a rear view. The list of dead in the Moscow stampede has reached 313, and that of the wounded 40,000.

IT WAS A MISTAKE.

The Times recently made mention of an anonymous letter which it had received, berating the G.A.R. in bitter terms for the alleged neglect on Memorial day to decorate the graves of the war-heroes who are buried in the Catholic cemetery on Buena Vista street. In the same paragraph the Times expressed the opinion that the correspondent was under a mistake, and declined to publish his communication.

The matter having been brought to the attention of Keneas Post, No. 106, of East Los Angeles, that organization on Friday evening, June 5, adopted resolutions declaring as follows:—"We, the members of Keneas Post, No. 106, G.A.R., in regular meeting assembled, desire to say to any and all that in this order we know no creed and no nationality; and, further, that an officer of this post, with a detail, visited the Catholic cemetery on Buena Vista street and decorated the graves of seventeen comrades. Further, that on every Memorial day since the organization of this post a detail has been sent to the cemetery to decorate the graves of our comrades who have answered to the last great roll-call, so far as known, have been remembered in like manner."

This effectually disposes of the matter, and shows that the correspondent was in error, as the Times supposed. His strictures were unfounded, and therefore need not be further noticed.

The friends of San Pedro harbor have made a superb fight on behalf of the site chosen by the government. Present indications are that their contest will be crowned with success. If such be the gratifying result, no small part of the credit will be due to Mr. T. E. Gibson of this city, who has labored untiringly and effectively for the cause of San Pedro, which is also the cause of the people. Throughout this close and bitter contest Mr. Gibson has been alert and watchful of the interests of the San Pedro harbor at all times. He has contributed valuable aid in support of the people's cause, and in checkmating the corrupt and disreputable schemes of Huntington and his paid agents. Whether San Pedro finally wins or loses, Mr. Gibson will be held in grateful remembrance by all right-minded citizens of this community for his loyal devotion to the best interests of Los Angeles and Southern California at a critical time.

Another important matter which the St. Louis tornado settled is that underground telegraph wires have a great advantage over aerial wires. The Chicago Times-Herald in referring to this says that had it not been for the underground wires there would not have been any means of communication whatever with St. Louis, all aerial wires having been prostrated by the frightful storm. This is a lesson which the telegraph companies should not forget, and the authorities in all cities should make it compulsory to run the wires underground.

As a death-dealer the trolley wire seems to be a huge success in Chicago. The Post of that city says that during the month of May there were seven persons killed in electric-car accidents and fifty-two persons more or less seriously injured. Four horses were killed on the streets but their drivers managed to escape with their lives. The increase in the growth of population of Chicago will be seriously impaired unless the trolley is quickly superseded by compressed air or some other power as a street-car motor.

A peculiar and fatal accident occurred a few days ago in Pittsburg. An eight-year-old boy was trundling his iron hoop along the road, when it became entangled in a trolley wire which had been broken and was lying on the ground. The boy took hold of his hoop to pull it out and as he did so received the full force of the electric current and fell dead. In the published report of the occurrence it is stated that the corpse showed numerous burns made by the electric wire.

Good Democrats may well be dismayed at the prospect which confronts them. From Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson to Albiged and Tillman is a fearful tumble. Nevertheless, as the Toledo Blade observes, Democracy appears to be scheduled for the slide.

The Iowa State Register dubs President Cleveland's administration the "Deficiency administration." The term is very appropriate when it is remembered that Mr. Cleveland's second term has so far lacked about $1,000,000 a week of paying expenses.

The members of the City Council and the Mayor have not yet begun to try to explain their action in rushing through that Huntington harbor resolution. This is one of those cases in which explanations are futile.

Secretary Carlisle's speeches will come in handy as campaign documents; for, as remarked by the New York Press, they can be used by both the gold and the silver wings of the Democratic party.

John Peters St. John, as the apostle of prohibition is styled, seems to have fallen from grace. The Kansas City Star refers to him as being "a little bit of everything and not much of anything."

Y.M.C.A. Changes. Changes and improvements are being made in the entrance and basement of the Young Men's Christian Association building. Among other improvements is the tiling of the entrance with the letters Y.M.C.A. in blue and white. This tiling is the gift of the members of the Board of Supervisors as individuals.

The amount of money held by the various London banks is not far short of $1,250,000,000.

FIELD OF POLITICS.

What Maj. McKinley's Callers Say About Him.

The Truth About the Sound Money Democrats.

Women Solid for Protection—The St. Louis Herald's Scheme. Cleveland in a Bad Temper. A Ready Solution.

(From Washington correspondence of Chicago Times-Herald, May 30.) Nearly all the distinguished men who visit Maj. McKinley at Canton speak in warm praise of the Governor's personal bearing and his manner. Both Senators Quay and Hannabrough bear testimony to this in conversation with their friends here. "I confess that when I went to Canton I had some prejudice against McKinley," says Senator Hannabrough, "but all this was quickly removed from my mind. I found the Governor frank, manly and wholesome. Though having the greatest prize in American public life well within his grasp, he was as modest and unassuming as a gentleman as I ever met. Not the first sign of elation, or of arrogance, or of planning himself, was to be discovered. As the certain names of his party for President, with an election also well assured, I found him just as simple and natural as he was when a plain Congressman. His greatest anxiety appears to be to succeed in the party, and for success in the campaign and in administering the affairs of the government, in case he is elected. He has no vindictive feeling toward any one. Senator Quay speaks in the same vein. 'McKinley has a level head, with no swerve in it,' said Quay to another Senator.

The Trouble. (St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) The trouble with sound money Democrats is that they stand off and talk about the justice of their cause, while the free silverites pitch in and elect the delegates.

Not Particular. (Kansas City Star.) The Kansas Populist would support either Bland or Botes on a free-silver platform. The Populist in that State were never very particular.

Concedes the Nomination. (San Francisco Bulletin.) Mr. Quay concedes the nomination of McKinley on the first ballot, which shows that the McKinley campaign is not altogether without result, and Mr. Clarkson has taken to his bed. On the whole it may now be considered an avalanche.

Not the Chosen One. (Detroit Journal.) Senator Teller seems to be laboring under the impression that he has been chosen to put the thousand in the St. Louis convention to flight. When he gets there he will be laboring under the impression of a 300-ton trolley hammer.

Oil on Troubled Waters.

(Kansas City Star.) Of course W. F. Harty, chairman of the National Democratic Committee, will not interest aspirants to disputed seats in the Chicago convention and determine their fate in the preliminary roll of which he or will be, in Mr. Harty's custody, covers a wider area than the space here. The preliminary roll of which he or will be, in Mr. Harty's custody, covers a wider area than the space here. The preliminary roll of which he or will be, in Mr. Harty's custody, covers a wider area than the space here.

McKinley Gavel. (New York Commercial Advertiser.) As soon as is proper after the Republican National Convention opens in St. Louis on June 16, the chairman-elect will be presented with a gavel bearing this inscription: "Convention, held at St. Louis, June 16, 1896, nominating William McKinley for President."

The gavel was made by William Henry Bartlett, of Carthage, Ill., the youngest man who carved the exquisite beadwork which attracted so much attention at the World's fair, and which was taken from the cabin built by Abraham Lincoln at Salem, Ill., in 1832, and will be presented to the chairman by Senator O. F. Berry, a nephew of Jonathan Berry, who was Lincoln's business partner.

A Stupid Scheme. (New York Tribune.) Nothing seems more ridiculous than the suggestion of the Star that the talk about defeating McKinley's nomination through the creation of a dummy in the business world. This scheme of Platt's is considered among the stupidest that has yet been devised. "McKinley's nomination," it points out, "is demanded by the hundreds of thousands of workmen who during the Cleveland administration, have already been able to eke out a decent living and the millions of farmers whom free trade has nearly ruined. Half a dozen wall street speculators would not increase their fortunes as much as a matter of fact, adds the Star, 'the working people do not care a continental what takes place in Wall street, but they do care greatly who is to be President after March 4, 1897, and it is clear they want McKinley and no one else.'"

In a Bad Temper. (Washington Special to Chicago Post, May 30.) President Cleveland is in a frightful temper over the story that the silver wing of the Democracy is endeavoring to turn the McKinley Stevenson campaign against him or his sound-money representative. This is about the first time the President has ever given witness that he knew of the existence of such a person as Adlai Stevenson.

When one of the Vice-President's daughters died last year, it was not even thought necessary to call on a White House reception that happened to be set for the day of the funeral. If Stevenson should be nominated at Chicago the fact would be an important factor in settling Cleveland's already half-formed purpose to personally head an honest-money bolt.

Platitudes Do Not Count. (Kansas State Journal.) Mr. Cleveland intends these soon to be uttered in his veto message as a basis for a third-term boom he will soon discover his mistake. An administration which has increased the public debt hundreds of millions in time of peace can do very little business on a retrenchment platform.

The Plain Truth. (New York Mail and Express.) It is becoming more manifest every day that the Democrats are rent and torn by the free silver fallacy. That delusive doctrine of currency inflation and debasement is the rock upon which the Democrats will split at Chicago. Senator Brice and other influential Democratic leaders freely confess the abandonment of all hope of rescuing their party from this pit of destruction. Still, why should they be surprised? The Democratic party has been committed to the free-silver scheme for years. In Congress the Democrats have uniformly given a majority party vote for every free-silver bill that has been introduced. Why should they not be for free silver now?

The Man for the Hour. (St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) It may be said of McKinley that he is the only Presidential candidate for a first term since Grant in 1868 with personal popularity enough to make a nominating convention into a ratification meeting.

A Solution Ready. (St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) President Buchanan gave the Republican party a hard financial problem, but it was solved promptly and ably. The unpleasant inheritance from the Cleveland administration will be disposed of with equal ability.

"Delish" in the Water. (New York Mail and Express.) The effect of Pittsburgh water upon a National Prohibition convention is not unlike the effect of Chicago whisky upon a Democratic National Convention. Were it not for the notorious rectitude of Pennsylvania, citizenship would be inclined to suspect that Pittsburgh had surreptitiously put a "stick" in the water.

Why They Want McKinley. (New York Press.) The people have had protection and plenty, and they have had free trade and plenty. That is why the voters are shouting for the nomination of McKinley, that later they may take care of his election.

Campaign Shots. (Toledo Blade.) There is one Mark Tom Platt cannot lose.

(Kansas City Journal.) The people want McKinley as a means to an end, not an end in itself. That is why the voters are shouting for the nomination of McKinley, that later they may take care of his election.

(Chicago Tribune.) The exact definition of the free-silver movement seems to be: "Any old thing that will fool the voters."

(St. Louis Globe-Democrat.) Mr. Tillman seems to have been somehow misled into mistaking a dump-car for a band-wagon.

(Chicago Tribune.) The New York Sun calls McKinley "Maj. Mum." That will do for the present, but later on he will be maximum.

(Boston Herald.) The chances are about 18 to 1 against Boies of Iowa ever coming within forty rows of apple trees or within fifty rows of cherry trees.

(Kansas City Star.) John Peter St. John, who it will be remembered, was a celebrated "bolter" in Kansas in 1882, has now become a bolter.

(Kansas City Star.) Mr. Bland's boom has escaped from Missouri through the back door and made its way as far as Oklahoma.

(Kansas City Star.) The charge that Tillman said with his knife is purely circumstantial, but his speeches sound very much as if the story were correct.

(Chicago Record.) The barometer in Tom Reed's district continues to indicate the deadly pressure of the McKinley boom on its course of devastation.

(San Francisco Bulletin.) Mr. Carlisle does not have to furnish the key of his Presidential letter now. It was a declaration. The Kentucky primaries settled that.

(Chicago Inter Ocean.) The New York Herald is very busy naming a Vice-President. It mentions seventeen available for this office, and seven of them are from New York.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Address by Superintendent Foshey at the Y.M.C.A. Building. The fifth of the series of Saturday evening lectures at the Y.M.C.A. building was given last evening. The occasion deserved a large audience, for Prof. Foshey, Superintendent of Schools, gave an excellent address upon the schools of the city. The lecture was preceded by a quartet, excellently rendered by Miss Shepardson, Miss Ethel Hodges and Len Shepardson, and an original and entertaining reading by Mr. Shepardson.

Prof. Foshey prefaced his lecture with an account of the origin of the public schools of this country. They were established first in New England, and a law passed in 1642 required every township to have a school to maintain a school. Formerly any one who had a smattering of education could teach school, but that day is past. The standard has been raised very high, and now higher in Los Angeles than in eastern cities. Three grades of certificates are issued, known as primary, grammar school and high school. These do not include the special certificates in kindergarten work, music, etc. To receive a primary certificate, the applicant must pass an examination in the subjects of reading, writing, arithmetic, per cent, of these subjects and half a dozen more. The high school certificate is still more exacting. Graduates of the normal schools may receive without examination primary or grammar school certificates. In addition to intellectual training, there must be moral and physical education. When a boy is sent to school the whole boy is sent. Much is being done, but it is not enough.

There are many free schools for training in the practical arts, and the results have been most apparent in the commercial progress of the people. In the report of the Los Angeles schools for 1895-96 attention was called to the poor eyesight of many of the children. A task fall eyes and ears of the children were examined. Of 10,000 children thus examined, 1800 had defective eyesight, and 1100 had defective hearing.

There are fifty-two public schools in Los Angeles and over 17,000 pupils. This was the first city in California to have free kindergarten. At present the minimum kindergarten age is five years; next week the board will probably reduce it to four and one-half years, so as to give the child an opportunity for education. The majority of the children are in school only four years. There are several thousand in the first school year but less than one hundred in the last.

The money for schools is supplied by the State, county and city taxes. The State taxes are available only for paying the salaries of primary and grammar-school teachers.

The city taxes are used for kindergarten, manual training supplies and high schools. School architecture has greatly improved in the past ten years. The recent buildings are admirably planned, health and comfort. Women have been steadily supplanting men as teachers. There are now 833 women teaching in the city schools, and only forty-eight men.

The valuation of the school property is $1,250,000. The building fund is $300,000; the monthly pay-roll is $30,000. There are eight grades in primary and grammar school besides the kindergarten work. The Board of Education has nine members, one from each ward. They serve gratuitously and deserve credit for their duties as a strenuous.

The condition of buildings, fences and surroundings is unusually good in Los Angeles. A superintendent of buildings, a deputy superintendent and several assistants devote their time to this, and keep every thing in thorough order. Prof. Foshey read at length from an article recently published in The Times, by Prof. J. M. Gurnea, former Superintendent of Schools.

MUSIC AND MUSICIANS.

Our Removal-Alteration Sale Will Crown the Summit of All Sales Ever Known to Ye Los Angeles Public.

When completed our store will have 166 feet frontage on Spring street. This will give the Big Stores more street and floor space than ANY house on the Pacific Coast. We take possession of the Santa Fe ticket office on Monday, and as soon as the masons and carpenters are through with it our new furnishings will go to that end of the store. The shoe department will be removed to the store now occupied by the Chicago Clothing Co., as soon as the lease expires and the rebuilding is done. We are now building a great annex on New High street, so that our store will extend from Spring to New High and the whole length of the Phillips Block to Franklin street. This necessitates an entire change in the interior arrangement of the stores. Hence we make way for the workmen. We don't want one dollar of present stock in the new store. We are willing to make such losses to accomplish this end as you never dreamed of. We shall be forced to take great losses on damaged goods from dust and dirt if we do not sell them now. Everything must be cleaned out. For prices on merchandise less than you've ever heard of, come to the Removal and Rebuilding Sale, which starts tomorrow morning at 9 a.m.
